ELECTION NEWS:

2024 Presidential Primary Ballots are being sent out this week by February 16, 2024.

Citizens who are affiliated with a major party - Republican or Democratic will receive only the ballot of the party with which they are affiliated. All Unaffiliated voters will receive a ballot for each party and can only vote one of those ballots for their vote to be counted. Voters affiliated with a minor party in Colorado will not receive a ballot during the 2024 Presidential Primary.

Note from the Colorado Secretary of State's Office:

Several candidates on the Republican Party Presidential Primary Election ballot have publicly suspended their campaigns since the ballot was certified on January 5, 2024. At the time of this publication, those candidates include:

Gov. Chris Christie
Gov. Ron DeSantis
Gov. Asa Hutchinson
Vivek Ramaswamy

Marianne Williamson on the Democratic Party Presidential Primary ballot has also publicly suspended her campaign.

These candidates have not filed paperwork with the Secretary of State's Office to formally withdraw their names from the ballot.

Donald J. Trump v. Norma Anderson, et. al., which concerns whether Donald Trump is eligible to appear on the Colorado Presidential Primary Ballot, has not yet been decided by the United States Supreme Court. If the Supreme Court rules in favor of Mr. Trump, votes for the former president will be counted. If the Supreme Court rules against Mr. Trump, votes for the former president will not be counted.
